a section of the Infant class and also the Hindustani Boys' School The present Government building of the Anglo-Vernacular School will accommodate the Kannada Girls' School and a section of the Infant class By this arrangement all the Schools will have improved accommodation and the Hindustani School will be under the immediate supervision of the Head Master of the Anglo-Vernacular School Under these circumstances an increase of Rs 5-8-0 to the monthly rent now paid for the Schools will be required so that the proposed arrangement for giving them better accommodation may be carried out It will be necessary to employ a Scavenger on Rs 3 a month to keep the premises clean There will thus be required an additional amount of Rs 8-8-0 a month

2 A house was engaged for a monthly rent of Rs 3 for the Hadiga School at Hosakote with effect from 1st July 1900

3 A house rent of Rs 15 was sanctioned for the Anglo-Vernacular School Nelamangala by Government Order No 5649-50/EdT 21-96 dated the 17th November 1896 and was utilized till November 1897 when the school was removed to the Government building The amount has been available in the Budget since that date I request that Government may be pleased to sanction the additional charge of Rs 11-8-0 proposed above from this amount

I have the honour to be,

Sir

Your most obedient servant.
